Dear Mr. Roderick McCulloch Russell:

This refers to your Access to Information Act complaint to the Office of the Information Commissioner of Canada (OIC) regarding the failure of CSIS to provide all responsive records to your request of June 18, 2014.

During the course of the investigation, the OIC conveyed vital information that was not articulated in your original request. Additional searches were conducted on the base of the information provided by the OIC. //

Enclosed please find a copy of the releasable material pertaining to the subject of your request. Portions of the material have been exempted from disclosure by virtue of one or more of sections 15(1) (as it relates to the efforts of Canada towards detecting, preventing or suppressing subversive or hostile activities), 19(1) or 24(1) of the Act.

With regards to the information exempted pursuant to subsection 19(1), I wish to inform you that the disclosure provisions contained in subsection 19(2) were considered however, none of them applied.

In accordance with the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat Directive on the Access to Information Act, I am enclosing a copy of the Duty to Assist Principles for your convenience.

You may use the contact information located in the footer to contact us should you wish to obtain clarification concerning your request. Please provide the file number at the top of this letter in any subsequent correspondence.

Please be advised that you are entitled to file a complaint to the Information Commissioner concerning the processing of your request within sixty days of the receipt of this notice. In the event you decide to avail yourself of this right, your notice of complaint should be addressed to: Information Commissioner of Canada, 30 Victoria Street, Gatineau, Quebec, K1A 1H3.

Yours truly,
